CLAIMS CONSULTING

SML claims consultants bring decades of claims handling experience and understanding of coverage to provide our clients with insight and support to effectively manage their losses.

We review loss runs and interact with the carriers and defense attorneys to assure that claims are being properly handled and reserved appropriately. We analyze litigated claims to assure that they are being properly defended, that legal fees are appropriate and that all risk transfer opportunities are pursued. If we determine that there is legal responsibility on the part of our client, we prepare recommendations on settlement.

We coordinate and attend claim reviews, collect data from claims offices, prepare booklets and agendas, prepare paid, reserve and incurred value reports and follow up "to do lists" of agreed to changes and strategies.

GENERAL CONSULTING

SML is an organization of professional consultants experienced in facing the risk management and insurance challenges of its clients and implementing creative and cost effective solutions.

SML does not sell insurance and operates with complete impartiality and independence. With SML, you can rest assured that your risk management and insurance concerns are properly protected.
